

EM SERIES

The EM Series has ten standard in-stock models and comes complete with a circulating pump package. The American Gas Association certification is standard and only available with the EM Series. The EM system is designed to recover waste heat safely and efficiently. By utilizing the flow control valve the EM effectively reduces the stack temperature to 250° F or lower. They are designed for very low gas pressure drops allowing them to operate on atmospheric as well as power burners.

Slip-Fit Gas Connection

Temperature Gauge

Pump Controller Assembly

Certified by the American Gas Association (AGA)

Stainless Steel Internal Bypass

